Newsletter for Careerforce Registered Assessors

November 2016

Welcome to the November newsletter for Careerforce Assessors. In this issue we invite expressions of interest for a new assessment opportunity. We also list the upcoming peer moderation workshops. Also remember that you can access archived copies of this newsletter on the Careerforce website.

An exciting new opportunity to broaden your assessment skills

We'll soon be launching our Business qualifications (Levels 3 and 4) and are seeking expressions of interest from assessors who might meet the requirements from several Consent and Moderation Requirement (CMR) documents.

This is an opportunity to support your own professional development and broaden your assessment skills. If you're interested in providing contracted assessment services for Careerforce and you meet the various CMR requirements, we would like to discuss the opportunity further with you.

Please email rick.woodward@careerforce.org.nz with your expression of interest.
